FOREWORD

THE items listed in the following catalogue are, with a few exceptions, the stock removed from the Paris Shop of William Baumgarten & Co., Inc. and comprise a fine and select assemblage of French and English Period Furniture, also a small collection of Italian Renaissance pieces.

By far the most represented are those from the Periods of Louis XV and XVI with numerous fauteuils, bergeres, commodes and small tables, among which mention must be made of a French commode by Reyzell, signed; another signed J. Stumpff and a chiffonier or tall chest of drawers, signed Schlichdig, all master ebenistes of their period.

There is also to be found a fine Louis XVI inlaid dining table.

The Collection of English Furniture comprises examples of Jacobean, Queen Anne, George I and George II, Chippendale, Hepplewhite and Sheraton pieces, all from the hands of expert cabinet makers, as can be seen by the workmanship, although none have been attributed in any way.

Also worthy of mention is a sculptured marble fountain of the Period of Louis XIV.

Tapestries of verdure and pictorial nature from the looms of Flemish and Aubusson weavers should also be made note of for the fine technique and coloring which will be found in every example. They represent the XVII and XVIII Centuries.
